Tel: (865) 776-2739

Mahsati Janan

Drum Solo

9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Choreography is intermediate to advanced and options will be given for beginner to intermediate dancers.

Mahsati has been performing professionally as both a soloist and group artist for over 10 years and has been a member of the Troupe Amani Dance Ensemble, El Oahdi, Bal Yifte, and Bal Tzigane. She is currently the director of Qamari Dance Collective and Banat al-Qamar. Mahsati teaches weekly group classes, private lessons, small group lessons and workshops. She is known for her joyful dance style, her playful spirit and her professionalism.

Raksanna

Melaya

1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Workshop participants need to bring either a Melaya or a veil. Choreography is intermediate to advanced and options will be given for beginner to intermediate dancers. Heeled shoes (like character shoes) strongly recommended.

Raksanna is an internationally respected, award-winning teacher, educator and performer specializing in belly dance, or the Middle Eastern art of Raks Sharqi. She is known for her fun, nurturing teaching style, dynamic powerful performances and passion for Belly Dance. With a vision of producing beautiful, educated belly dancers who can move and know the history and background of this art form, Raksanna has gained global recognition and is a regularly featured instructor at the world famous "Ahlan Wa Salan" belly dance festival held in Cairo, Egypt.

Participants in the show must attend one of the workshops. Show performers must purchase a $5.00 ticket to cover the cost of Mezza. Neran will choose performers from registrations received.
